SunTrust Signs Agreement with InfiCorp for Consumer Credit Cards

Atlanta – Continuing to solidify its leadership position in partnering with financial institutions in the delivery of competitive credit card products and services, InfiCorp Holdings, Inc., today announced it has signed a long-term agreement with Atlanta-based SunTrust Banks, Inc. for issuing consumer credit cards. Under terms of the agreement, InfiCorp will market, originate and service SunTrust-branded cards starting in the first quarter of 2007, focusing on existing SunTrust clients. SunTrust will have the option to purchase card assets for its own loan portfolio.

“We are pleased to be partnering with a well respected and customer oriented bank such as SunTrust,” said Rajive Johri, President of First National Bank of Omaha and Chairman of the Board of InfiCorp Holdings, Inc. InfiCorp Holdings, Inc. and First National Bank of Omaha are both wholly owned subsidiaries of First National of Nebraska. InfiCorp provides comprehensive credit card portfolio management services to banks and credit unions. Operating in a business-to-business capacity, InfiCorp conducts all activities in the brand names of its clients, helping them leverage their inherent strengths of existing customer bases, broad distribution channels and established consumer brand identities.
