First National Bank to Open Corporate Offices and Retail Branch in Des Moines

(OMAHA, Neb. June 20, 2008.) – First National Bank, a subsidiary of First National of Nebraska, Inc., will join First National Investment Banking (FNIB), in occupying corporate space in the Davis-Brown Tower, 215 10th Street, Des Moines, Iowa, for its Corporate Banking, Consumer Lending and Wealth Management divisions next week, and is developing a branch facility at that location, announced Rajive Johri, president. He said the bank will be branded First National Bank Iowa.

Representatives of the bank's Wealth Management, Corporate Banking, Consumer Lending and Merchant Services divisions currently operate in various locations around the Des Moines metro area. In 2007, FNIB acquired Cybus Capital Markets, LLC, in Des Moines, which now operates as a division of First National's investment banking group.

First National Bank is a subsidiary of First National of Nebraska, Inc. First National of Nebraska has grown into the largest private banking company in the United States. First National and its affiliates have $21 billion in managed assets and over 8,000 employee associates located in 35 states. Primary banking offices are located in Nebraska, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, South Dakota and Texas.
