

An Improved Website Experience Coming Soon!

Starting the week of January 30, firstnational.com will be getting a fresh new look designed with you in mind.

Firstnational.com will be getting a fresh new look designed with you in mind. The update will offer:

A simplified online experience

Improved navigation

Mobile-friendly
design

What do I need to do?

Nothing. There will be no change to Online Banking so your user name and password will remain the same. You'll simply notice the redesigned homepage when you visit firstnational.com and there will be prompts to walk you through the new experience.

When will these new features be available?

Starting the week of January 30, you'll see a new look when you visit firstnational.com. Keep in mind that we're continuing the redesign process, so you'll see updates over the next several months.
